4.

The cut was very pretty. It was new, and it was pretty! Kristina was pleased.

1.

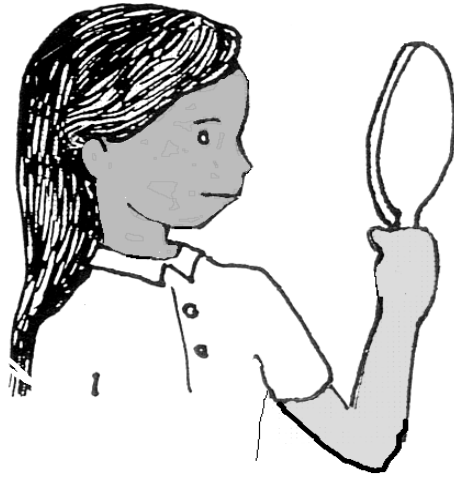

Kristina had very, very long hair. She wanted to get it cut, but she was scared. It had not been cut before!

Kristina said she wanted to get it cut about ten inches. “That would be very pretty,” said her Dad.

”What do you think, Mom?” said Kristina.

“I think it would be pretty if you cut it three inches,” said her mom.

2.

Kristina had to think and think. Her hair had been long for a very long time. She liked it long, but she would like to cut it. And her dad had said it would be pretty cut!”

“What shall I do!” said Kristina. Shall I cut my hair or shall I leave it long? Shall I please my Dad or shall I please my Mom? Or shall I please myself?”

3.

Kristina’s mom came into her room. She sat on Kristina’s bed. She said, “Kristina, I think your hair will be very pretty cut. It is pretty long, but it will be pretty cut too!”

Kristina asked herself, “Well, are you going to cut it or not?”
