2.

My Dad said I could use his tools. The tools were in the toolbox. My Dad said for me to get tools out to fix my bike.

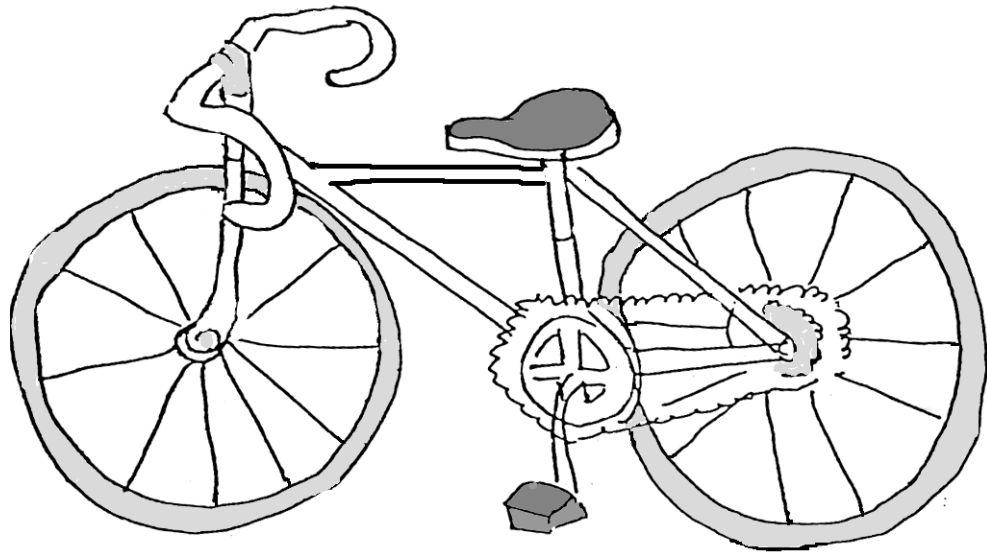

3.

I tried to fix my bike. I could not fix it, so Dad helped me. I got him the tools.

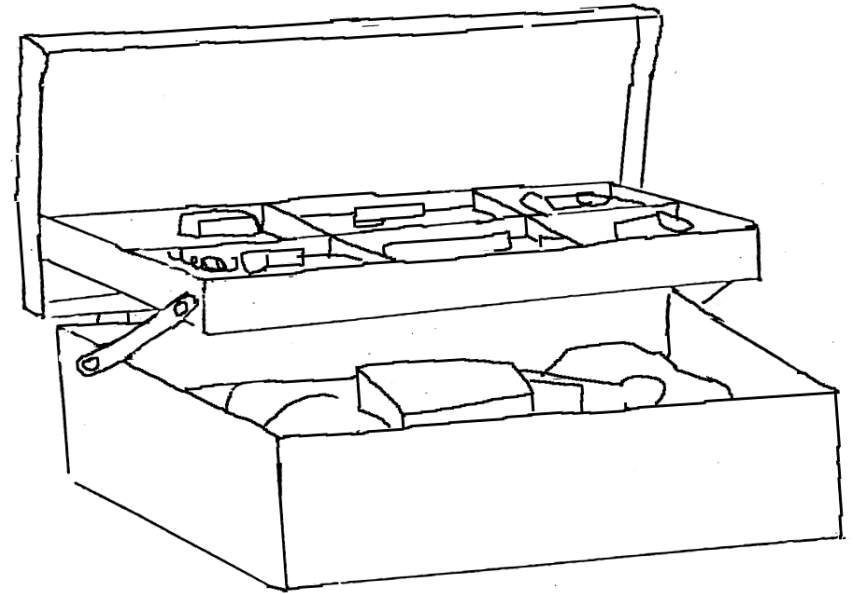

"Sit down," he said. I sat down beside him and he helped me fix my bike.

4.

"That looks good, Dad," I said (I think I could have done it by myself if I had worked at it more).

1.

My Dad uses tools. He uses them for the car, for the house, and for the bikes. He uses them for these things and other things.
