I guess I did not want
any help!

1.

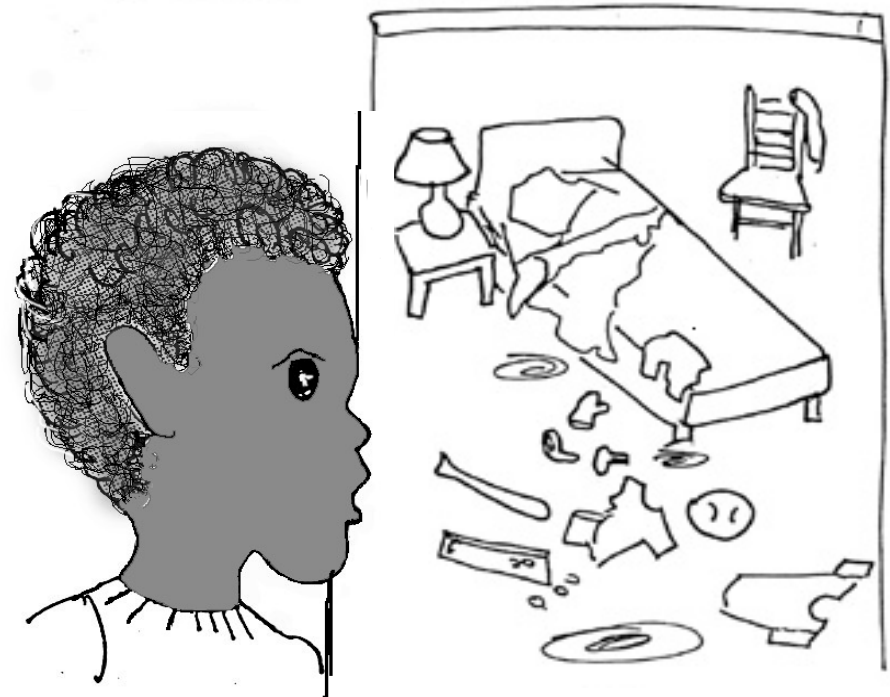

Well, my room got messy
again after a week, and my sister said she was going to help me clean it again.

2. So my sister started to clean. She did not clean my bed. She did not clean my floor. But she did clean my toys--she washed them!

3. Now my room looked just like it always did after a week--MESSY!

But now the toys were also wet! There was water everywhere!
